Head Coach Rod Tueller, in his third year, is flanked by a pair of four-year Aggies: center Leo Cunningham and forward Haakon Austefjord.

Aggies: Balance and Depth

Through two years in charge, Rod Tueller's Utah State teams have scored more points than all but two of the nation's major college clubs.

Some 4,604 points in two seasons isn't bad. That's almost 84 points a game for  $55\,\mathrm{games}$ .

Offense hasn't been a problem these first two campaigns and, says Tueller, it won't be this year, either.

"I have no qualms at all about our offense," said Tueller, who is after USU's fourth post-season bid in five years. "We have the ability again to shoot and score. And more players will be involved in it, too."

The keywords—says Tueller—are "depth" and "balance" in 1981-82. A bit of a new look. More players shooting better shots. A looming challenge: an out-of-balance schedule which takes the Aggies away from the Spectrum 15 times. (The schedule includes a trip to the Kentucky Invitational where the Ags will be after their third straight holiday title.)

Tueller says his team will get out and go again this winter, under a bit of a rein to insure things don't get out of hand. But it appears in 1981-82 there is a reasonable chance to continue the Aggies' ratio of virtually every other game being of 90 points or better.

Two starters return—6-111/2 senior center Leo Cunningham and 6-1 junior guard Lance Washington—plus Tueller feels he is deeper in talent than he was a year ago.

Reserves who lettered in 1980-81—and should be more prominent this season—are senior guards Greg Anderson (6-2) and Larry Bergeson (6-0) and 6-7 senior forward Haakon Austefjord.

And, there are five "squadmen" in the fold, each with at least one Aggie year behind them: juniors Frank Shaw (6-3) and Scott Harries (6-5) and sophomores Joel Rotta (6-11/2), Bob DeMarco (6-3) and Michael McCullough (6-5).

Creating what Tueller describes as "...an exciting blend of experience and enthusiasm..." are four new athletes: JC transfer Eric Petersen (6-7) and freshmen Greg Grant (6-7), Dave Beishe (6-31/2), and Mark Cutler (6-8).

Grant, a 21-year old freshman just back from a church mission to Australia, had been impressive during early season drills until a late-October knee injury forced surgery. His status is unknown, but in years ahead he should become an established player.

If Tueller is optimistic about his team's offensive capabilities, he is pleased with the potential defensively and in rebounding (two Aggie drawbacks a year ago.)

"It's our major objective this year to Improve in rebounding and on defense," said Tueller. "We averaged over 81 points a game, which is enough to win a lot more games than we did. But, we gave up that many points a game, too. We've got to be able to play it, and play it tougher in crucial spots." (USU was 10 points from a 17-11 record last year.)

With Cunningham's 145 blocked shots over the past two seasons, it is obvious Utah State's team has a good start at becoming strong on defense with him in the middle. Early-season drills made it evident Petersen will be very good on defense while Austefjord works intensely at whatever he does. Plus, there is enough quickness elsewhere—with McCullough and some of the guards—to indicate the Ags can be strong all-around defensively...if they want to be.

And it appears they will, indeed, be a stronger rebounding team considering Cunningham's 8.7 rebounds a game last year and the physical nature of athletes like Austefjord—the letterman—and Petersen—the newcomer.

The depth is more experienced; the 1981-82 Aggie team appears deeper in every spot. That would be even more a factor had Grant not been injured. (USU had a pair of unanimous all-PCAA choices the past two years in Brian Jackson and Dean Hunger; now there is more balance.)

Petersen's 17 points and 11 rebounds a game at Lassen JC (Calif.) last year indicate he could help right away. And the chance to start every game should boost Austefjord's effectiveness markedly his final year in Logan.

*1979-81 at Lassen JC, California

**High School totals, 1978-79

Now a sophomore, McCullough's playing time will increase dramatically (and last year he got into 16 games.) Harries, the Nevada-Reno transfer who played in nine games a year ago, is a good shooter who could help if he shakes nagging injuries. McCullough, Harries and Shaw can "swing", playing either forward or at the big (off) guard.

Otherwise, it appears to be a group of athletes with similar skills grouped in the backcourt. Among the "point" guards Washington, the junior, showed some tremendous physical skills at times last year while starting in 23 games; Bergeson, the senior, is a very good outside shooter; and Rotta, the sophomore, is a heady, forceful performer who could make quite a contribution in just his second season.

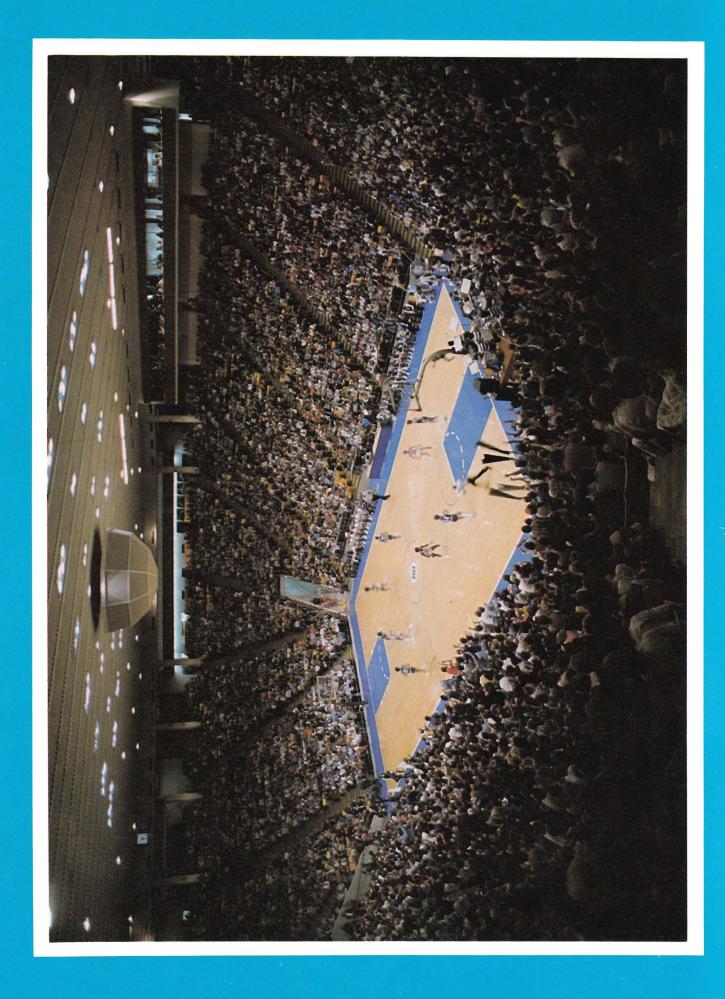

The big guards include Anderson, the senior who transferred from BYU and played in every game in reserve last winter; sophomore Bob DeMarco who was Utah's prep 4A MVP as a senior and shoots very well; and a good big freshman in Dave Belshe from Cypress, Calif. Anderson, with the quickness to stop on a dime and give you change, could be a big factor.

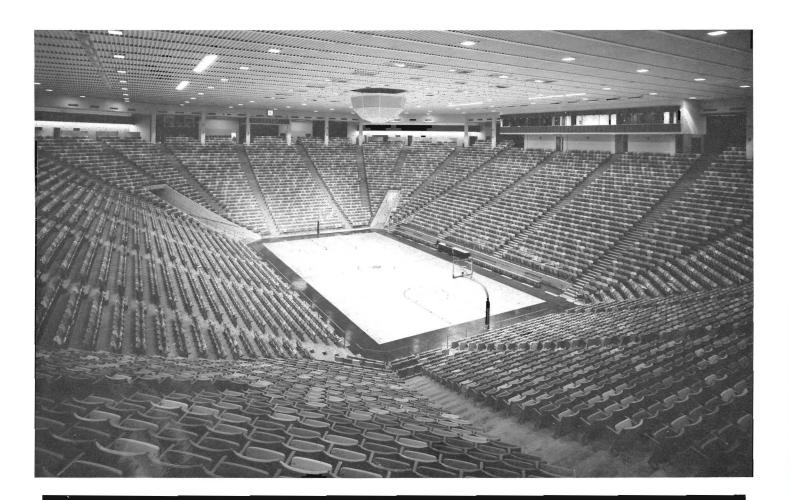

So, after the school's first losing season in nine years, it appears the Aggies will be back on track with a more cohesive, unselfish bunch. The coach says the ball will be passed more freely; more players should play more minutes; strong defense will be played, particularly at important times.

The carrot dangling before the Aggies is their hosting of first round NCAA play in March.

The Spectrum (10,270)

An average of almost 8,000 fans a game have watched the Aggies in action in eleven years since the dedication of the Spectrum, December 1, 1970 (USU defeated Ohio State, 95-89).

Some 1,201,400 fans have filed through the turnstiles in USU's 152 home games during that time.

The Spectrum—one of the nation's most complete college arenas—comfortably seats 10,270 (5,000 student capacity and 3,800 season ticket availabilities). All are chair back seats done in a pleasant color scheme of light orange, dark orange, light gold and yellow. There are 36 rows of seats completely encircling the floor.

Virtually every need common to the staging of a major college game or tournament is provided for including complete dressing room and meeting room facilities for four teams. Aggie teams use the north locker rooms and the visitors the south facilities. The teams enter the playing floor via nearby ramps.

The playing floor is permanent and is constructed of maple on a cushion, over concrete. The sound system is the most modern available and uses the cluster sound program. Scoreboards are installed at each end of the Spectrum.

USU's Hoop Past: Tradition—Rich

Utah State's 1981-82 basketball team is charged with the opportunity to continue one of the country's growing college basketball traditions. The Aggies this season are seeking their fourth post-season tournament bid over the past five seasons. Few clubs nationally can enter 1981-82 capable of making such a statement.

Over the past 20 years—since Ladell Andersen took over the Aggies and they became consistent winners—USU basketball teams have been averaging a post-season appearance every other year.

USU's beautiful basketball home—the Spectrum—is a result of USU's excellence in the sport

The names of the athletes who have created this Aggie tradition—and their varied accomplishments—are storied to USU basketball fans.

At the top of the list is all-American Wayne Estes, a huge 6-6, 230-pound man mountain who was tragically electrocuted the same evening he scored his 2,001st career point in a game against Denver University in Logan, Feb. 8, 1965.

Wayne scored 48 points that night (he and Rick Barry of Miami had entered that week's play in a tight race for national scoring honors; Wayne was averaging 32.9 points.) He complained of numbness in his hands all during the game, but in the first half he scored 24. The numbness continued but he scored 24 more the second half. "I was just putting the ball up," he said during a post-game radio interview, "but somebody else was putting them in for me."

Within a few hours he was dead. Returning home from a postgame pizza, he and some friends stopped at an accident site on one of Logan's snow-slickened streets. His head brushed a live wire, hanging six and a half feet from the ground, and thousands of watts of electricity shot through his body.

The big, likeable Anaconda, Montana native left an impressive legacy of accomplishment for future Aggies to follow.

Before—and since—the Estes era, great athletes have shared outstanding moments with Aggie fans. Cornell Green, third to Estes in career scoring (1,890 points) went on to NFL all-pro greatness with the Dallas Cowboys as a cornerback-safety; 6-8 Marvin Roberts came all the way from Brooklyn, N.Y. to USU (he scored 1,844 career points) and then on to a professional career in both the ABA and NBA; 6-7 Robert Lauriski, a Logan native, finished his Aggie career in 1973 and played professionally in Europe; Oakland, California, sensation Nate Williams (6-5) spent two years with the Aggies and then played for eight seasons with Kansas City, New Orleans and Golden State in the NBA.

Brain Jackson, a senior last year, finished his four years in Logan with 1,900 points—second on the career chart to Estes. Jackson was the second round draft choice of the NBA's Portland Trailblazers.

Third-year Head Coach Rod Tueller (31-24) is continuing to build on the legacy left by his predecessors: Andersen (176-95) and Dutch Belnap (106-58).

Tueller's first year (1979-80) resulted in a 19-8 record and USU's first league title in 43 seasons.

When the Aggies make their appearance in Lexington's Rupp Arena in December of this season, Tueller will be aiming for another Aggie record: a third straight holiday tournament title. Under his guidance, the Aggies have captured the Lobo (Albuquerque) Classic championship as well as the trophy at the InBank (Providence, R.I.) Classic, last year.

22 Leo Cunningham

Center, 6-11½, 210, Sr., 21, Los Angeles, Calif.

The most experienced of the 1981-82 Aggies, Cunningham has three years of major college basketball behind him (70 games, 55 starting assignments)...has not missed a starting call the past two years...this year's most imposing Aggie figure in the lane, Leo is the tallest, most experienced post man in the PCAA...his strengths: outstanding interior defense and a strong leaping ability to rebound well at both ends of the floor...he must continue to improve and solidify his play as a postman to help the current Aggies... USU's coaches expect to incorporate him more prominently into the Aggie offensive scheme...is known as "Dunkzilla"...his defensive effort on Kevin Magee in the PCAA tournament-with help-was the primary reason the Ags got through the first round of the tournament... Magee was held to half his average: 14 points...Leo's scoring (2.1, 3.9, and 8.8) and rebounding (1.5, 5.6, 8.7) have grown steadily over his career, and that trend must continue to benefit Rod Tueller's '81-'82 team...his blocked shots totals in two years as a starter-58 and 66-have also been impressive...a late-bloomer as a prep, he averaged 15 points and 12 rebounds a game for Reggie Morris at Manual Arts High School in Los Angeles...that club finished the year 21-6 and wound up among the top four of LA's 49 city high schools...USU fans first took notice of Leo as a freshman (1978-79) when he funneled in 10 points and grabbed eight rebounds in 10 minutes of play against Fullerton State...he played well early last year at home against Utah with 17 points and 14 rebounds...later, in game number 22, he scored 17 points and came up with 16 rebounds against Long Beach State in the Spectrum...averagd 14 points and 11 rebounds during a five-game set midway through the PCAA league season...full name: Leo Cunningham, Jr...Physical Education major...son of Elnora and Leo Cunningham...born: September 2, 1960 in Los Angeles.

31 Haakon Austefjord

Forward, 6-7, 210, Sr., 21, San Jose, Calif.

If genius is really perserverance in disguise, then Austefjord wins the prize for "stick-to-itivness"...the most improved of Utah State's performers of a year ago, "Hawk" is back for his fourth year as an Aggie...as a junior, playing in every game and starting three times, he showed excellent growth and improvement at both ends of the floor... his trademark has become tenacity, hard work...possibly there are more talented athletes around, but no one intimidates Haakon...a very strong, physical player...playing nearly 20 minutes a game, he finished fifth on the team with a 7.3. scoring average...scored 14, 12 and 13 points as a starter in three mid-season games last winter against Weber State, East Central and Portland State...a very good markesman, he actually led the Ags in shooting last year (80-of-151, 53.0%)...rarely has a bad night from the floor...made a king-sized contribution to USU's win over UC-Irvine in the PCAA tournament with a career high 17 points and eight rebounds...during that game he did a tremendous job in USU's team-oriented defense on UCI center Kevin Magee...among his better games as a junior would be the December 29 contest at BYU in which he scored 17 points grabbed 14 rebounds and was the Ags' starter during the second half...five nights later in the Spectrum he had 14 points and 12 rebounds against Weber State...obviously a strong possibility to hold down one starting job, Austefjord (AWS-tuh-fyord) nonetheless is a solid, dependable inside player for the Aggies...is very much capable of defending bigger inside power forwards and post players because of his aggressive nature on the floor...once set a junior varsity team record with 36 points and 17 rebounds...he was an all-Central Coast Section honor winner during his days at Monta Vista High under Ray Snyder...that club was 19-8 with Austefjord as a senior...he averaged 17.8 points and 9.8 rebounds that year...Marketing major at USU spent his summer as a security guard...son of Harald and Laila Austefjord...born June 1, 1960 in Tonsberg, Norway.

12 Larry Bergeson

Guard, 6-0, 165, Sr., 24, Driggs, Idaho

One of the Aggies' four seniors, Larry enters his third year in the Utah State basketball program...athletically gifted, Bergeson has good physical skills...quick and strong, he is a good outside shooter...has played his first two years primarily as a reserve, although he started last year on two occasions...played in all but six games last winter for the Aggies...during a year in which Rod Tueller and his staff will be looking for strong senior leadership, Bergeson's contribution both on the bench and on the floor will be important...Larry will fit into the team as a ball handling number one (point) guard...he came to USU in time for the 1979-80 season, and he used that year to re-orient himself to the pace of the college game and work himself back into shape after two years on a church mission...actually started his higher level basketball competition at the College of Southern Idaho in Twin Falls where he was a member of a very good junior college team (28-2) for current Fresno State coach Boyd Grant...Bergeson has physical skills which make him very suited for USU's up-tempo brand of basketball...played in high school with BYU's Gary Furniss at Teton High, (27-0), under coach Lester Wade...contributed 18 points a game for Teton's state championship team (1975-76)...twice an all-stater...Special Education major...Dean's List student at USU...married to the former Terry Ann Price and they are parents of a son, Braydon James...full name: Larry Grover Bergeson...son of Shelton and Marsha Bergeson...brother, Chris, is an Aggie footballer...born August 7, 1957 in Blackfoot, Idaho.

23 Greg Anderson

Guard, 6-2, 175, Sr., 24, Salt Lake City, Utah

One year has been informally established as the period of time it takes former college athletes to become accustomed again to the pace of the game after years off for church mission work...and USU senior Greg Anderson has that year behind him now...after two years as a member of the BYU team, and two years in the mission field in the Calgary, Canada area, Anderson last year joined the USU program...now, he returns for this second and final year in Logan...last year exhibited a great deal of natural talent for the game of basketball...very agile, he jumps and shoots well, all assets Rod Tueller hopes to use effectively this winter... averaging 14 minutes a game in each of USU's 28 games last year, he was the starter against Michigan State in the InBank Classic in Providence, R.I...he made a good contribution to the Aggies a year ago, and with a year to adapt and adjust, he should be even more prominently in the picture for 1981-82...considers his games at Irvine (10 points in the double overtimer) and at home against BYU (10 points) to be his best in his first season with the Aggies...his 2.5 points a game left him seventh on the team last year...wound up seventh and eighth in scoring his two years at BYU...had a 16 point night against Arizona State while at BYU...born in Provo, his parents both attended BYU and brother Belmont played basketball for the Cougars, as well...Greg attended Salt Lake City's Skyline High and earned all-state honors playing there for Neil Roberts on a 25-4 team...was a teammate of Danny Vranes at Skyline, Vranes an ex-Utah player now with the Seattle Supersonics...Greg's 26 points paced Utah's high school all-stars to a 118-114 win over the Arizona all-stars...Psychology major at USU...a very good student, he hopes to attend medical school...married to the former Raylene Riggs (onetime BYU homecoming queen) and they recently became parents of a daughter, Amy...son of Belmont and Vivian Anderson...born October 19, 1957 in Provo.

Dave Belshe

Guard, 6-31/2, 192, Fr., 18, Newport Beach, CA

One of the three new freshmen to join the Aggie program...has a history as a very solid athlete...a good, big-guard candidate with a great deal of promise...has proven to USU's coaches he knows the game and plays it competitively...with his solid background and abilities, Belshe should provide good depth as a freshman...listed as a second team all-CIF performer by the LOS ANGELES TIMES...average 18.7 points and 9.0 rebounds in high school (as well as 4.5 assists) while shooting 53% from the floor and 82% from the line...led coach Ron Craig's Cypress High club to a 21-5 record...started for three years at Cypress...Belshe was the captain of his prep team which tied well-known Wayne Carlander's Ocean View High team for the title in the Empire League...major undecided...full name: David Allen Belshe...parents: Pete and Jackie Ferraro...born February 28, 1963 in Long Beach.

Mark Cutler

F-C, 6-8, 211, Freshman, 18, Indianapolis, Indiana

A big, young athlete new to the Aggies this season from Lawrence-North High School in Indianapolis...filled a role as a defender and rebounder on one of Indiana's most proficient outside shooting teams...played for Jack Keefer on a 15-6 team at Lawrence-North a year ago...that team won the Central Suburban Athletic Conference title...was the "stopper" on a high school team which sends threathletes to major college basketball...1981-82 will be a learning year for Mark...needs experience and maturity to be able to contribute to the Aggies...Engineering major...full name: Mark Stephen Cutler...born January 11, 1963 in Indianapolis.

Bob DeMarco

Guard, 6-3, 185, Sophomore, 20, Midvale, Utah

During a 1980-81 season which he spent playing on the JV club, DeMarco was one of four freshmen listed on USU's varsity club...as he proved with the JVs, Bob is an effective scorer...has improved his ability to handle the ball and play tough defense...played in six varsity games...a tenacious, courageous athlete...regarded as a hardnosed, fierce competitor...he'll be pushing for playing time at the "off" guard spot...as a high schooler, he was the state's 4A MVP...was the star of Hillcrest High's 73-71 double overtime victory over Orem for the state title...he scored 28 in that game, playing for coach Jim Jimas...Bob was a three-year starter at Hillcrest...scored 15 points a game and averaged six assists, too...was Utah's leading scorer in the prestigious BCI high school all-star tournament in Tucson during his senior year...Physical Education major...son of Tony and Betty DeMarco...born November 13, 1961 in Midvale.

Greg Grant

Forward, 6-7, 190, Fr., 21, Salt Lake City, Utah

Technically a freshman, Greg is a 21-year old mission returnee (Australia) who joins the Aggies as a first-year man out of East High in Salt Lake City...he played there as a senior during the 1978-79 season and was chosen all-state for coach Dick Milne...averaged Mark Cutler F-C 6-8 211 Fr.

Greg Grant Forward 6-7 190 Fr.

20.3 points and 15 rebounds a game as a senior on a 21-4 team which finished second in the state...chosen the MVP on that 78-79 East High club...seems capable of providing some help this year, but that depends on the period of time it will take to become acclimated to the pace of the college game...his growth and maturity from two years in the mission field will be a plus when his physical conditioning is worked out...deceptively quick...has the second longest reach on the Aggie team to senior center Leo Cunningham...son of Judge Paul Grant who played for two years at the University of Utah...born March 25, 1960 in Salt Lake City.

Scott Harries

Swing, 6-5, 190, Junior, 22, Reno, Nevada

Scott appeared in nine games as a sophomore last year (a total of 29 minutes playing time) after transferring to USU from the University of Nevada-Reno...a "swing" player in the Aggie program, capable of helping along the baseline or as a big guard in some spots...proved himself to be an outstanding shooter with good range last year...has found the toughest adjustment for him to make is defensively, both inside and on smaller, quicker guards...an adequate offensive threat who will have an opportunity to help the Aggies at the small forward...definitely figuring in Rod Tueller's plans this winter...served an

Michael McCullough

Swing, 6-5, 170, So., 19, Rancho Cordova, Calif.

Michael is one of the bright young stars on the Aggie basketball horizon...fine young athlete who had a fine first year on the major college level...appearing in 16 of the Aggies' 28 games, McCullough exhibited exceptional quickness and speed...is capable of "swinging" from the small forward to the big guard position...is outstanding at changing ends of the court quickly...defensively very sound because he makes good use of his quickness...helped start Utah State's longest winning streak last year with a seven-point game on January 17 at home against Pacific...came to USU a year ago from Rancho Cordova High (outside Sacramento) where he played on teams with records of 20-7, 28-3 and 27-5...starter the final two seasons for Hub Morphew, he captained the club to a Metro league title as a senior...Sacramento County "Player of the Year" as well as Metro league MVP...top high school game: 44 points...averaged 19.7 points and 12.2 rebounds at Cordova...son of David and Martha McCullough...has two brothers and three sisters, one of whom plays college basketball...majoring in Business (Personnel and Industrial Relations)...full name: Michael Anthony McCullough...born September 9, 1962.

Eric Petersen

Forward, 6-7, 210, Junior, 21, Orinda, Calif.

Utah State's basketball coaches the past nine years have become highly selective about adding junior college transfers to the program; only additions in that time have been seven-footer Ed Gregg, swingman Edgar Wickliffe and standout guards Rich McElrath and Keith McDonald...now comes another accomplished JC athlete: Eric Petersen...regarded by USU's coaches as an excellent all-around basketball player...a junior college all-America at Lassen JC in Susanville, California, he is listed by THE SPORTING NEWS as one of the top 20 JUCO transfers moving into major college basketball in 1981-82...at 6-8 he brings the same size and abilities as other forwards produced by USU (all-PCAA choices Brian Jackson and Dean Hunger, recently)...a rugged, yet very intelligent player at both ends of the floor...has shown an instinct for the ball, as well as strong abilities as a rebounder and shooter...he is expected to make a major contribution to USU's inside game with his size, experience and savvy...a good defender and a good, solid power player...strong and aggressive, he shoots well in a crowd...there is no question he is ticketed for a major contribution to USU basketball; the Aggies just don't recruit junior college athletes unless that is the case...brings in scoring/rebounding averages of 17.0 and 11.0 from John Jones' Lassen program; the teams there were 24-5 and 28-4 his two years...was an all-NOR CAL choice for Tom Blackwood on Miramonte High School's 19-7 team...a Business Administration (Marketing) major at USU...son of H.R. "Pete" and Dolores Petersen...born April 8, 1960 in Orinda, California.

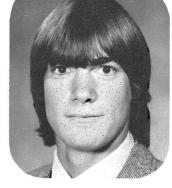

Michael MuCullough Swing 6-5 170 So.

Eric Petersen Forward 6-7 210 Jr.

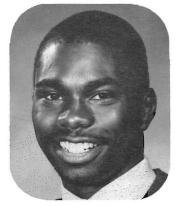

Joel Rotta Guard 6-11/2 165 So.

Joel Rotta Guard, 6-1½, 165, So., 18, Salt Lake City, Utah

After one season of major college basketball, this young left-handed guard looks right on target for exceptional development as a good ball-handling point man...made very good progress on his game during the spring, summer and early fall...has a lot going for him: strength, speed and smarts...a very good shooter from the floor and exceptional markesman from the line...there seems little question he has what it takes to challenge for a great deal of playing time in the backcourt his sophomore year...appeared briefly in five games as a freshman, but saw action in only one of the final 17...averaged 17.8 points for Jim Yerkovich at Judge Memorial High in Salt Lake City before coming to USU...his guardmate, Aaron McCarthy, was a starter last year as a freshman at the PCAA's UC-Santa Barbara...still holds school records at Judge in free throw shooting (90.4%) and field goal shooting (63%)...was a key factor in Judge's drive to the 3A state title...son of Vincent and Paula Rotta...born November 27, 1962 in Castro Valley, California.

Lance Washington Guard 6-1 175 Jr.

Frank Shaw

G-F, 6-3, 185, Junior, 23, Liberty, Utah

A small forward/big guard candidate in his third year as a member of the Aggie program...has worked his way up through the JV program and is a member of the 1981-82 Aggie club because of his tremendous desire and hustle...he is a walk-on who earned a scholarship...a strong, aggressive athlete...scored 17.2 points a game and averaged 9.0 rebounds for the 1976-77 USU JVs...that included a 28-point game against the Boise State junior varsity...a three-sport standout at Weber High School where he played on Dick Connolly's team and averaged 17 points and five rebounds a game...married to the former Paula Kippen...Distributive Education major at USU...an honor roll student in high school 12 straight times...son of Don and Margo Shaw...full name Frank Marriot Shaw...born September 23, 1958 in Ogden.

Lance Washington

Guard, 6-1, 175, Junior, 20, Inglewood, Calif.

One of USU's two starters back from last year (center Leo Cunningham is the other), Lance played in all but one of last winter's games as a sophomore point guard and started 23 times...has been blessed with the physical tools to succeed on the major college level...quick, with good speed, he has proven at times to be an extremely effective penetrating guard..he can dish it off, too: his 81 assists last year led the team in that category...the Aggies expect, and need, strong leadership from the "number one" guard spot, and Lance could be the guy to fill that role in his junior year...the Aggie point guard will have scoring opportunities, too, and Washington is a capable shooter...connected on 53% of his shots from the floor as a junior, including 64% over the final 10 games (30-of-47)...that sort of touch and shot selection, spread over a full season, could have a profound effect on USU's season...top offensive games: 16 points at BYU and at home against Pacific...says his best game last year came against Irvine in the PCAA tournament when he scored 13, kept his composure in the ballhandling responsibilities, played solidly on defense and penetrated consistently...first burst onto the Aggie scene as a frosh (1979-80) with 11 points and nine assists in 15 minutes against New Mexico in the Lobo Classic Championship game...was a 19.6 points- a-game man for Glen Marx as a senior at St. Bernard High...an all-CIF 4A pick...full name: Lance Eric Washington...a "B" student a USU majoring in Public Relations/Communications...son of Jacquelyne Wilson...born August 13, 1961 in Leavenworth, Kansas.

Behind the Scenes

Seamons, 52, a veteran with the Aggies, is in his 16th year in charge of all equipment for Aggie sports teams. He is a lifelong Cache Valley native. The 32-year old Mildenberger, a graduate of Colorado State University with a Master's from the University of Arizona's renowned post-graduate program, is in his seventh year at USU. Martinez, a senior from Logan, has been an important part of Mildenberger's program for more than four years (he began while still a student at Logan High.) Jones, a 20-year old native of Logan, is the Aggies' third-year student manager.

Rod Tueller: Third Year In Charge

Rod Tueller faces his third year as Utah State's head basketball coach with the same zeal which has earned his clubs records of 31-24 (overall) and 16-11 (PCAA play) his first two seasons.

Tueller, 43, is a 1959 Aggie graduate and the school's 12th basketball coach.

Some six years at USU as Dutch Belnap's assistant groomed Tueller for his current job. And he got his first year (1979-80) on the job put together quite nicely: a 19-8 record (11-2 in the PCAA for USU's first league title in 44 years) and the Aggies' third straight post-season playoff bid. For his work he was named PCAA "Coach of the Year."

The Aggies' 1980-81 record (12-16) was a first for Tueller: in some 22 years of high school and college coaching he had never been connected with a team which lost more than it won.

When he took the USU job in March of 1979, Tueller was the popular choice after a nationwide search for Belnap's successor.

A longtime Cache Valley native, Tueller assumed his new job exactly 20 years after receiving his degree from Utah State. In between were 14 years of high school coaching (at Utah's Altamont and Logan High Schools) and six years on Belnap's staff at USU. During the span he spent with Belnap, the Ags fashioned a fine 106-58 record and appeared three times in post-season play.

His ascension to a head job on the collegiate level resulted from circumstances in stark contrast to a couple of decades earlier when he packed his young family off to eastern Utah and tiny Altamont High...and a situation he knew little about.

Tueller, father of six, knew what he was getting into this time. And he likes the challenge.

"I'm probably as blue and white as anybody you'll find," said Tueller. "I have some great ties with this university. I think I've been involved with this school in about every conceivable way: as a student, as a fan, as a father (his daughters have attended USU and were members of the Aggiettes marching group) and as an employee. These past two years I've been really anxious to maintain the great tradition we have here in basketball.''

One of the brilliant young coaches to climb the ranks of Utah's prep game, he spent eight years (1965-1973) as the head coach at Logan High and continually had the Grizzlies in the state tournament. (He spent two years as an assistant coach at Logan, after four years as the head man at Altamont).

Tueller's records on the high school level and during the past at Utah State when he directed the Jayvee program, indicated success (in terms of wins and losses.)

"But to me the real success in athletics is the association you have with players, coaches and administrators. And I attribute my success to being associated with good people.

"I'm not heavily oriented toward long-range goal planning," he said. "Honestly, my long-range goals are greater than any lifetime accomplishments.

"I guess you would say I love to get involved totally in whatever I'm into at the time. I really believe if you take care of the present, the future will be shaped in large measure by how deeply you dedicate yourself right now."

Tueller, whose teams have both been in the nation's top 10 in scoring, spent several weeks this year lecturing in France and Italy.

Tueller describes his coaching style as "...wide open; fast breaking offense and pressuring defense. But, that doesn't mean I won't do other things to win. The key is adjusting the system to the players, and that will be our over-riding philosophy.

"Certainly, everything we're doing now is with the objective of maintaining USU's great tradition. And while that is the basis of the program now, a prime motivation is to improve it. To win another PCAA title, to become successful in post-season play, and so on."

As a former prep coach, Tueller says one of the joys of collegiate basketball is working with the best of the high school athletes.

"I would call them physical geniuses," he said. "It's a challenge to get them to exercise their potential and to play to their capabilities."

And that is one of the tasks charged to Tueller and assistants Dana Pagett and Tom Stewart.

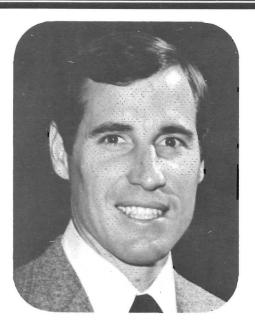

And then there is recruiting, the key to success everywhere in collegiate athletics.

"There is really nothing more to recruiting than selling," he said, "and any salesman will tell you the easiest product to sell is one you believe in. I don't find it too difficult to sell people on Cache Valley and Logan, and Utah State University."

Tueller's exposure to basketball led to a brilliant all-state high school athletic career at Logan High and then he spent a year and a half at the University of Utah playing for the legendary Jack Gardner before transferring to Utah State.

A Cedar City native, Rod is active in his church having served as a Bishop and now a member of his Stake High Council. He is married to the former Valene Danford. They are parents of six children. Two are married: Tina (Comadena) and Dana (Smith). The others are Lisa, Tann, Joni and Juli.

Dana Pagett

There isn't a coach in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association today who is more well-versed on the ins and outs of PCAA basketball than Aggie assistant Dana Pagett.

He received his first coaching exposure to the PCAA in 1974.

Now in his fifth season in Logan—his third as an assistant to Rod Tueller—Dana's years as an aide at longtime PCAA member Long Beach State have been important to USU's recent success.

Once a backcourt performer at the University of Southern California, the 32-year old Pagett is in charge of coordinating Utah State's basketball recruiting effort. In addition, he handles some responsibilities in scouting as well as on-floor coaching.

Dana joined the Aggie staff prior to the 1977-78 season after three years as an assistant coach to Dwight Jones at Long Beach State. Dana's knowledge of the PCAA has been critical in USU's 25-16 league record three seasons in the conference.

While at Long Beach State, Dana helped the 49ers to three conference titles. Long Beach State was 54-27 during that time.

During his four years with the Aggies, Utah State clubs have won 71 games and lost 42.

Dana started his coaching career under the legendary Bob Boyd at USC when he served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater during the 1972-73 season.

Before joining the Long Beach State program, he was an assistant for a year (1973-74) at Loyola of Los Angeles under Dave Benedaret.

A winner at every level of competition, he was a guard on three USC teams (1968-71) which combined to win 47 of 68 games.

Dana is married to the former Sue Birdsall of El Segundo and they have two sons, Brett and Kyle.

Tom Stewart

Onetime Aggie basketballer Tom Stewart, 36, is in his third year as an assistant to Rod Tueller.

Tom, 6-6, was an aggressive baseline performer for Ladell Andersen's USU teams of the late-1960s. After two seasons back in Logan, it is obvious the fervor he brought to the game as a player is being translated into his coaching style.

Once a JC transfer to USU, Tom lettered at USU for three years (1965-68) before spending a season in Logan as an Aggie graduate assistant coach and then nine years as a head coach at high schools in Washington, Oregon and Utah.

Tom came to USU two years ago after a season as the head coach at the new Alta High School in Sandy, Utah.

Prior to his appointment at Alta, he spent three years at Box Elder High in Brigham City where he guided the team to its first region championship in 33 years and a second place finish to Provo in the 1978 state tournament.

He started his high school coaching career with three years (1969-72) at Boistfort (Washington) High and two years at St. Helen's (Oregon) High School before moving to Box Elder.

Following his playing career at USU, he spent the 1968-69 season as a graduate assistant on the Aggie staff with Andersen, Dale Brown and Dutch Belnap.

Aggie fans will remember Stewart as one of the most physical Utag basketballers in years; at 6-6 and 225 pounds he was a capable rebounder and he wound up with a career shooting figure of over 59 percent. A Piedmont, Calif., native, he transferred to USU from Santa Rosa JC where he led all the state's junior college scorers during the 1964-65 season with a 26.6 average.

Stewart is married to USU graduate Kathy Birkin, a native of Mackay, Idaho. They are parents of three children: Corey, Amy and Ashley.

USU's Fourth Year in PCAA

The Pacific Coast Athletic Association is in its 13th year of growth and development.

Through the active and dynamic leadership of the member schools' presidents and athletic directors and under the guidance of aggressive Commissioner Lew Cryer, the PCAA has proven to be flexible enough to accept the challenges facing college athletics by adapting dramatically innovative concepts.

Even with constant growth and improvement the PCAA, which embraces universities in California and Utah, is not as widely known as it is going to be.

Cryer (now in his fourth year as PCAA Commissioner) took over for Jess Hill, the league's first fulltime commissioner, in June of 1978. Stability, financial security and national respect were the legacy left by Hill

Under Cryer the league has been given NCAA sanction for the PCAA-hosted "California Bowl" in Fresno; "Game of the Week" football and basketball TV contracts have been negotiated; the already successful PCAA post-season basketball tournament has flourished and Utah State has become a full-fledged member of the conference.

"The addition of Utah State to the PCAA family is one of the most significant events in the history of the conference," said Cryer. "It transformed the PCAA into a regional conference and brought us into the Salt Lake City and Rocky Mountain markets."

The league is growing, and the schools in the league are doing the same. There is a combined enrollment of nearly 140,000 students at the eight PCAA member institutions.

Currently serving as President of the PCAA is Dr. Andrew Montana of Cal-State-Fullerton.

Even though the 1981-82 Pacific Coast Athletic Association basketball race is expected to be a real dogfight, it will have to go some to live up to the rich tradition established in the first decade of the conference by some outstanding teams and individuals.

The PCAA was barely two years old when a Jerry Tarkanian-coached California State University, Long Beach team brought it credibility by coming within two points of beating an NCAA championship-bound UCLA team in the Western Regionals.

It was 1971 and the UCLA dynasty was in full bloom.

A year earlier, UCLA handily dumped the 49ers in the semifinals of the Western Regionals, 88-65, and a similar result was expected as the two teams collided in 1971.

However, led by the PCAA's most valuable player, George Trapp, the 49ers had UCLA on the ropes the entire game before finally losing a 57-55 decision.

Cal State Fullerton provided the "Cinderalla Story" of the conference's first decade when it came from virtually nowhere in 1978 to within an eyelash of capturing a berth of the NCAA final four.

The Titans of Coach Bobby Dye finished third in the conference that season behind Fresno State and San Diego State, but won a trip to the NCAA playoffs by winning the conference's post-season tourney.

But as in the Cinderalla fairytale, Dye's carriage to the NCAA finals turned into a pumpkin when his scrappy squad fell to the eventual national runners-up Arkansas Razorbacks, 61-58, in the regional finals.

Even in that defeat, though, the Titan's play against all odds that year won forever the admiration of their conference peers.

The following season the Utah State Aggies joined the PCAA, bringing with them a rich heritage of basketball excellence. Since 1960, Utah State's basketball troops have recorded 17 winning seasons in 20 outings. In two of the three losing seasons, the Aggies were a mere two games under .500.

So clearly, Utah State's acceptance into the conference in 1978 continued to further the basketball reputation of the PCAA.

The Aggies wasted little time proving they would be a force in the conference as they finished their first campaign second behind Pacific and thus earned another journey to the NCAA playoffs.

In 1979-80 the Aggies made it to the top of the PCAA heap with an 11-2 conference mark and for the third consecutive year went to the NCAAs.

Dennis Farrell Ass't, Commissioner

Bob Andersen Layne Hemming

Bob Andersen, 25, is in charge of Utah State's current junior varsity basketball team. Once an Aggie guard, he played for two years in the USU program (1974-75, 1977-78). His years at USU were interrupted by a two-year church mission. He later spent two seasons in Jerry Pimm's program at the University of Utah. He was a high school standout at Logan High for both Rod Tueller and Joel Gardner. Bob is the son of USU Athletic Director Ladell Andersen.

Veteran high school coach Layne Hemming is working with USU's basketball coaching staff as a volunteer coach during the 1981-82 season, while working on an advanced degree. The 39-year old Hemming, a veteran of 15 years in high school coaching, has held coaching positions in Yakima, Washington and Malad and Idaho Falls, Idaho. He and his wife Janice are parents of three children: Traci, Cami and Travis.

Utah State University

The importance of the individual is emphasized at Utah State University. Additional impetus is being given to individualizing the baccalaureate degree. This is a system by which the individual can pattern his/her program within University policy and progress at his/her speed.

Utah State University has a threefold purpose: teaching, research, and extension. USU also cooperates with various agencies on a national and international level to help promote understanding and share knowledge.

With a student body of 10,200, Utah State has advantages of both the large and small schools, with such features as a spacious library, excellent laboratories, and top-rated cultural attractions, including world-famous symphonies, ballets, pianists, singers, and lecturers. These advantages are combined with individualized programs characterized by close personal attention.

This University was founded in 1888 as a part of the public educational system of Utah and operates under the constitution and laws of the state. It belongs to a great family of institutions known as land-grant universities, which had their origin in 1862. A rich curriculum is offered in the arts and sciences, in both undergraduate and graduate programs. Degrees granted include the Bachelor's and Master's degrees, Doctor of Education (EdD), and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD).

USU includes eight resident colleges with 44 departments, a School of Graduate Studies, University Extension, and several research programs. There are also current programs in education aid to several foreign countries.

USU is accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, and is on the accepted list of the Association of American Universities, and of the American Council on Education and is listed by other accrediting agencies.

A sixteen-member State Board of Regents governs the Utah State system of higher education. This board has the responsibility for state-wide master planning for higher education, assignment of roles to the several institutions in the state system, and control of operating and capital budgets for the institutions. USU has a nine-member Institutional Council. This council has the responsibility of implementing the assigned roles, including the appointment of personnel and the enactment of rules and governing regulations.

Logan, Utah, home of Utah State University, is a town of 25,000 population located in northern Utah, 85 miles north of Salt Lake City.
